

热岩枯沒

Governor of Kanagawa Prefecture

The Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games will finally be underway.

Kanagawa Prefecture will attract people through the allure of culture and art as well as continue to push forward its "Magnetic Culture (MAGCUL)" program that revitalizes the region. It has taken this opportunity to publish "Cultural Programs in Kanagawa 2021-2022" out of a desire to convey the appeal of Kanagawa's culture and art throughout Japan as well as the world.

The prefecture will utilize the power of culture and art, including its "Co-existence and Co-creation" program where all people can join and enjoy performing art regardless of age, disability, or other hinderances. It aspires to create a sustainable regional community where there is "Vibrant INOCHI" (Vibrant Life). Together with all the municipalities in Kanagawa and related groups, this year it will hold the "Tokyo 2020 NIPPON Festival" under the theme of co-existence and co-creation, along with a variety of other cultural programs

We encourage you to enjoy the wide-ranging appeal of "MAGCUL," from traditional performing arts to the latest media art, through this publication

東京2020オリンピック・パラリンピック競技大会が、いよいよ開催されます。

神奈川県では、文化芸術の魅力で人を引きつけ、地域のにぎわいをつくり出す「マグネット・カルチャー(マグカル)」の取組を推進 しており、この機会を捉え、神奈川の文化芸術の魅力を広く国内外に伝えたいという思いから「Cultural Programs in Kanagawa 2021-2022」を刊行しました。

本県では、未病改善や共生社会の実現を後押しするため、年齢や障がいなどに関わらず、全ての人が舞台芸術に参加し 楽しめる「共生共創事業」に取り組むなど、文化芸術の力も活用し、一人ひとりの「いのちが輝く」持続可能な地域社会の実現

今年は、共生社会の実現をテーマとする「東京2020 NIPPONフェスティバル」をはじめ、様々な文化プログラムを県内市町村や 関係団体の皆様とともに展開します。

伝統芸能から最新のメディアアートまで、幅広い「マグカル」の魅力を、本冊子を通じて楽しんでください。

Yabusame Horseback Archery Yabusame horseback archery is a Japanese traditional ritual that involves shooting whistling arrows while riding a galloping horse. It reflects prayers for peace and tranquility, abundant crops, and good health for all. Highly encouraged by the shogun Minamoto no Yoritomo, it was extremely popular during the Kamakura era. With a history dating back over 800 years, the tradition is preserved at shrines and by groups in various locations even today. 流鏑馬は、天下泰平・五穀豊穣・万民息災を祈念し、疾走する馬上から的に鏑矢(かぶらや)を 射る、日本の伝統的な儀式です。源頼朝が奨励したことから、鎌倉時代に盛んに行われました。 現在も各地の神社や団体で保存され、長いもので800年以上もの歴史を持ちます。 Outstanding Skill and Beauty 卓越した技と美 Kamakura Nohbutai Theater Established in 1970 with the aim of promoting and disseminating the Japanese traditional culture of "Noh Drama" (a UNESCO World Intangible Cultural Heritage). Odawara Lacquerware

The origins of Odawara lacquerware date back some 500 years. It started with coating vessels made from ground wood with lacquer.

The lacquerware utilizes techniques that infuse raw lacquer repeatedly as well as the beautiful woodgrain of natural wood in conjunction with wood grain coating and the like. It became recognized as a traditional handicraft in 1984.

小田原漆器の起源は、約500年前。木地挽きされた器に漆を塗ったのが始まりです。 生漆を幾度も摺り込む技法や、木地呂塗等を併用して、天然木材の美しい木目を生かした 漆器です。1984(昭和59)年に伝統的工芸品として認定されました。

Kamakura-bori Lacquerware

Red lacquerware with patterns carved in relief and Buddhist alter fittings and vessels based on carved black lacquerware - created by sculpting lacquer coated layer upon layer - were introduced. They were introduced from the Song dynasty along with Zen Buddhism around the time many temples and shing cynasty along with Zeri Buddhishi around the time thany temples and shrines were constructed in Kamakura.

Kamakura-bori lacquerware incorporates Buddha image-making techniques used by Buddhist monks themselves and is considered a handicraft that utilizes wood-carved lacquering that started by imitating those techniques. It became recognized as a traditional handicraft in 1979.

Japan Open-air Folk House Museum

川崎市立日本民家園

This outdoor museum in one of only a few Japanese old-style houses in the country features 25 houses, mainly old residences from the Edo era that were originally built elsewhere and relocated here to be exhibited. Their interiors display folklore materials and artifacts, enabling visitors to experience how people of the time when the houses were built lived and the environment that surrounded them. Popular among the attractions is the indigo dyeing workshop in the garden where visitors can gain first-hand experience dyeing fabrics.

CHIGASAKI 1964, As Seen Through Its Personages

人物でみる CHIGASAKI 1964

During periods of high economic growth, the lives of people and how they work changed. This happened in Chiqasaki also, as large-scale housing complexes were completed, the population increased, and industrial and other facilities were built as urbanization progressed. Drawing from materials, information, and anecdotes from 1964, this feature exhibition makes us think about how we who live in modern times are connected to all of this.

人々の暮らしや働き方が変化した高度経済成長期、茅ヶ崎市でも大型の団地が完成し、人口 が増加、工業施設などもでき、都市化が進みました。本企画展では、1964年当時の資料やエ ピソードから、現代を生きる私たちとのつながりを考えます。

Kibune Festival

貴船まつり

A Nationally-designated Important intangible Folk Cultural Asset, the "Kibune Festival" is an annual event taking place at the Kibune Shrine and is considered to be one of the three great boat festivals of Japan. The festival has been held every year for about 300 years and prays for good fishing catches and sound health. It is a refined religious festival full of tradition conducted amid the splendor of transferring on water a sacred object from its place of enshrinement.

国指定重要無形民俗文化財に指定され、日本三大船祭りのひとつといわれている貴船神社の例大祭「貴船まつり」。およそ300年続き毎年開催されるこのまつりは、豊漁・無病息災を祈願し、海上渡御する豪華さの中に伝統ある祭礼のゆかしさがあります。

Hand-carved stone sculptures created by 11 well-known as well as young up-and-coming artists will be installed and displayed at various locations scattered throughout the community, each using "Honkomatsulshi Stone" andesite produced in Manazuru-machi as its sculpting material. The "Stone Sculpture Exhibition" blends the appeal of stone material and art to communicate throughout Japan and overseas the attraction of stone-based culture in Japan, showing that the country's culture is not merely wood- and paper-based.

真鶴町で産出される「本小松石」を素材として、現代の著名作家や新進気鋭の若手作家11名が制作した石彫アート作品を、町内へ点在設置します。石材とアートの魅力を融合させた「石の彫刻祭」を開催し、木と紙の文化のみならず、日本における石の文化の魅力を国内外に発信していきます。

Oyama Noh is a Shinto ritual performing art steeped in over 300 years of history and held on the sacred mountain of Oyama since the Edo period. This traditional cultural event is revived as the Fire Festival and conducted with the cooperation of residents in and outside of Isegahara, carried on by the Oyama Nogakusha Preservation Society. As part of the "Japan Cultural Expo," a project promoted by the Agency for Cultural Affairs, this year it has been modified so that newcomers to Noh drama as well as foreigners can enjoy the entertainment.

Chakkirako

This is an event held in the Hanagure and Nakazaki Districts in Misaki, Miura City, during the Little New Year (Jan. 15). Carrying small dancer's fans and a small implement (lease rod for a loom) known as a CHAKKIRAKO, approximately 20 young women dressed up in fine clothes dance in rhythm to chorus-leading songs. After making offerings at the main shrine, to the local Shinto deities at Misaki, and at the Kainan Shrine, participants pray for family well-being and business prosperity at inns, restaurants, fish wholesalers, and other locations. In September 2009, the event was registered in the UNESCO "Intangible Cultural Heritage Lists."

Do you think that you don't understand kyogen very well and that it seems difficult? Kyogen is a spoken play characterized by laughter, expressing itself entirely through words and gestures without involving a large-scale stage setting. Kyogen performers active in various locations throughout Japan limit their performances to one day during the plum blossom season. We strongly encourage you to at least once experience kyogen which is said to be a tool to elicit laughter in Japan.

Yamakita no Dosojin Festival

The Dosojin is known as a god that protects children, a god that protects against plagues and other calamities, and a god of guideposts. Dosojin is also called "See no Kami," "Sai no Kami," and other names. During the festival, after the departure ceremony held every year in front of Yamakita Station, 6 festival floats and 3 mikoshi portable shrines parade through the Yamakita Station vicinity. When they return to Yamakita Station at around 5:00 p.m., the festival floats are illuminated, allowing spectators to enjoy a different festive ambiance than during the day. At the closing ceremony, the Kawamura Bayashi musical accompaniment performance, designated by the town as a cultural property, brings the festival to an end.

道祖神は子どもの神、疫病などの災いを防ぐ神、道しるべの神と伝えられており、「ドウソジン」或いは「セエノ カミ」や「サイノカミ」とも呼ばれています。この祭りは例年山北駅前で出発式を行ったあと、華やかな花車(か しゃ)6台と神輿3基が山北駅周辺を巡行。午後5時頃に山北駅前に戻る際は花車に光が灯り、昼間とは違っ た景色を楽しむことができます。解散式では町指定文化財川村囃子の演奏で祭りを締めくくります。
